

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

IN the following pages is contained a Supplement to the Catalogue of the Library of the Sacred Harmonic Society, showing the additions made to the Library since the publication of that Catalogue in January, 1853. In the Preface to the Catalogue, it was remarked that the contents of the Library had increased since 1849 nearly twofold; it will now be seen that the additions made to the Library during the past two years are equal to one third of its entire contents in January, 1853. It is exceedingly gratifying to observe that this large increase is in a great measure occasioned by the numerous donations which have been made to the Library; and the gratification is enhanced by the knowledge that for no inconsiderable portion of those donations the Society is indebted to persons who are not in any way connected with it, either as Members, Subscribers, or Assistants—a circumstance which is alone sufficient to prove the estimation in which the Library is held, and the importance which is attached to it, by those to whom the formation of a complete Musical Library is an object of interest.

A perusal of the Supplement will show that additions have been made to most, if not all, of the various classes of Music and Musical Literature which the Library contains; the great increase, however, which has been made in the collection of Ecclesiastical Music, as well as the acquisition of several ancient printed works, and of many literary works which, although treating principally of other subjects, contain interesting and valuable information relative to Music, in many cases not elsewhere to be found, may be more particularly noticed.

Amongst both the Printed Works and the Manuscripts will be found several of the compositions of Henry Purcell, including some which are unpublished. It is much to be regretted that no complete collection of the works of this great English composer is known to exist, but it is hoped that this Society may eventually succeed in accomplishing so desirable an object. To this end the assistance of those who may be possessed of copies of any of Purcell's compositions not already in the Society's Library is solicited—either by allowing transcripts of their manuscripts to be taken, or in such other manner as they may consider likely to further the proposed object.

As another object of especial interest, may also be mentioned a very large collection of the compositions of an eminent English composer still living, Sir Henry Rowley Bishop, in twenty folio volumes.

New Indices, referring to the entire contents of the Catalogue and Supplement, have been compiled for the purpose of facilitating reference.

Presented to the Society by the Rev. F. J. Stainforth.

Alterations are made in some of the pieces—such as the addition of a short Chorus to the Air, "Father of Heaven," and the curtailment of the Chorus, "Sing unto God." No opportunity, however, is afforded of forming an opinion as to the authenticity of the additional accompaniments, this copy being in vocal score only.

703. "The Most Celebrated Songs in the Oratorio called Deborah, composed by Mr. Handell." In full score. Folio.

Published by Walsh, London.

704. "Songs in Messiah, an Oratorio set to Musick by Mr. Handel." (With the Overture and Pastoral Symphony.) In full score. Folio.

Service. Published for the information of such as may be called to officiate in Cathedrall or Collegiate Churches, or religiously desire to bear a part in that service. The Second Edition. With many useful additions relating to the Common Prayer Book as it is now established. By Edward Lowe. Duodecimo . . . . . Oxford, 1664.
The First Edition was published in 1661, under the title of "A Short Direction for the performance of Cathedral Service, by E. L."

712. "Choice Psalms put into Musick for Three Voices. The most of which may properly enough be sung by any Three, with a Thorough Base. Compos'd by Henry and William Lawes, Brothers, and Servants to His Majestie. With divers Elegies, set in Musick by sev'ral friends, upon the death of William Lawes. And at the end of the Thorough Base are added nine Canons of Three and Four Voices, made by William Lawes." (The Cantus Secundus and Bassus parts only, bound together.) Quarto . London, 1648.

On the backs of the title-pages is a copper-plate portrait of Charles I., believed to be the last published in his lifetime; and amongst the commendatory verses prefixed to the work is the Sonnet addressed by Milton to Henry Lawes, commencing "Harry, whose tuneful and well-measured song."

Presented to the Society by Mr. R. W. Haynes.

713. A Volume containing the following Works :—

MANUSCRIPT MUSIC.

---

125. Deborah, an Oratorio, composed by George Frederic Handel; as condensed for performance by the Sacred Harmonic Society. With Additional Accompaniments, composed expressly for the Society, by Mr. Costa. In full score. The additions are distinguished from the original text by red ink. Large folio. 1855.
 Presented to the Society by Mr. Costa.

126. "Il Convito d' Alessandro, Musica del Signor Hendel." In full score. Oblong quarto.
 An adaptation of "Alexander's Feast" to Italian words.
 Presented to the Society by the Rev. F. J. Stainforth.

127. "Rinaldo," an Opera, by Rossi; composed by G. F. Handel. In full score. Folio.
 This MS. (which is a transcript of J. C. Smith's copy of the original score) contains the recitatives and symphonies, as well as those portions of the instrumental score which are omitted in the printed copy. The solos for the harpsichord, in the symphonies to the song "Vo far guerra e vincere," which are contained in the second printed edition, are not given in this copy, the places where they occur being (as in the first printed edition) left blank, with the word "Cembalo" written over. It was, doubtless, Handel's practice to play these solos at the performance extemporaneously.
 Presented to the Society by the Rev. F. J. Stainforth.

128. "Il Pastor fido," an Opera, composed by G. F. Handel. In full score. Folio.
 This is also a transcript from Smith's copy of the original score, containing the recitatives, &c., but wanting the three airs "Torni pure," "Accorrete, O voi pastori," and "Sciogla dunque," which are given in the printed copy of the favourite Songs in this Opera (see Addenda to Printed Music, No. 5), and which are also to be found in the volume of MS. Music described under No. 16.
 Presented to the Society by the Rev. F. J. Stainforth.

129. Three Cantatas for a Single Voice, by G. F. Handel, viz., "Usignuol che tra le frondi," "A voi torno," and "O Numi eterni," (La Lucretia). Quarto. Transcribed from MSS. in the British Museum, and presented to the Society by Miss Steere.

130. A Collection of Anthems, mostly by Composers of the latter half of the Seventeenth Century. In separate vocal parts, viz., Treble, Countertenor, Tenor, and Bass. (The Treble part wanting the first four Anthems.) Four books. Small folio.

O give thanks .. .	Purcell.	When Israel .. .	Dr. Blow.

A Latin Antiphonary, beautifully written on vellum, with illuminated capitals and borders, and paintings of the Annunciation, the Nativity, Christ appearing to Mary in the Garden, the Ascension, the Descent of the Holy Ghost, the Elevation of the Host by Angels, Jacob's Dream, the Coronation of the Virgin, the Congregation of All Saints. Octavo.

Presented to the Society by Mr. R. W. Haynes.

133. A Collection of Latin Hymns, Psalms, &c., for Three, Four, Five, and Six Voices (each part being written separately, but on the same folio). The only Composers' names given are those of Jacob Obrecht and Josquin des Pres, each of which is placed to one piece. The name "Mr's A. Bolleyne" is written on one leaf. Towards the end of the volume two or three French Songs are inserted. Some of the initial letters are coloured. Small folio. Written about the 16th century.

Presented to the Society by Mr. R. W. Haynes.

134. A Mass for Five Voices, ("Repleatur os meum laude,") composed by Giovanni Pier Luigi da Palestrina. In score. Small folio.

138. "Abramo ed Isacco," an Oratorio, set to music by Nicolo Jomelli.

In full score. Oblong folio . . . . . Venice.

The Libretto of this work is the Oratorio written by Metastasio, and composed by Predieri, in 1740, entitled "Isacco, Figura del Redentore," with two additional songs.

139. Music in the Play of "Timon of Athens," (as altered from Shakspeare by Thomas Shadwell,) consisting of an Overture, Instrumental Music, and a Masque. Composed by Henry Purcell. In full score. Quarto.

The first three movements of the Overture are identical with the "Trumpet Sonata" contained in the MS. described under No. 112, Vol. I., save that the Trumpet part is omitted in this copy. The same three movements (slightly altered) also form the Overture to the Ode for the Duke of Gloucester's Birthday, 1695. (See MS. Music, No. 102.)

140. "The Grove; or, Love's Paradise," an Opera, by John Oldmixon, composed by Daniel Purcell. In full score. Folio.

141. "Armida," an Opera, composed in the year 1783, by Joseph Haydn. In full score, in the autograph of the Composer. Oblong quarto.

This Opera was sent to England by Haydn, in fulfilment of an engagement entered into by him when in this country, to furnish an opera for the King's Theatre. During the interval between the making of the engagement and the sending the opera, an alteration had taken place in the management of the theatre; and on arrival of the work, the new manager refused to receive it, and it was consequently never brought out.

142. Elisium, ein Musikalisches Drama, von Herrn Kapellmeister Schweizer. In vocal score. Oblong quarto.

Ditto, 3 Voices, “Dus schere wyden.”
Canon, 4 Voices, “Komt goede gesellen.”

145. Two Volumes in the handwriting of Dr. John Alcock, dated Reading, 1746, containing the following works by Thomas Morley, in score. Small folio.

“Canzonets; or, Little Short Songs to Three Voyces.” (Printed in separate parts, at London, in 1593, and reprinted, with additions, in 1606. See Printed Music, No. 838.)

“The First Set of Ballets for Five Voyces.” (Printed in separate parts, at London, in 1595, and in score by the Musical Antiquarian Society in 1841. See Printed Music, Nos. 85-87.)

“Arise, awake,” Madrigal, from the “Triumphs of Oriana.”

“O amica mea,” Motett.

146. Two Volumes, containing the following Compositions by Henry Purcell, in score. Quarto.

VOLUME I.

“Twelve Sonatas of Three Parts, Two Violins and a Base, to the Organ or Harpsichord.” Printed in separate parts, at London, in 1683.

Between the leaves of the sixth Sonata is inserted the pamphlet addressed by Mr. Richard Clark “To the Lovers of Research, &c.,” in which he sought, by reference to that Sonata, to show that the Song “God save the king” was known to Purcell.

VOLUME II.

“Ten Sonatas in Four Parts.” Printed in separate parts, at London, in 1697. Overture in G major.

Hymn for Three Voices, "Plung'd in the confines of despair."

Ditto, "Hear me, O Lord"
Ditto, "Since God so tender a regard."
Ditto, "Oh, I'm sick of life!"

These four Hymns are printed in Novello's "Purcell's Sacred Music." See Printed Music, No. 54.

Both sets of Sonatas are in the handwriting of John Christopher Smith, and the other Compositions in that of Thomas Barrow.

147. A Volume in the handwriting of Thomas Warren, containing the following Compositions by Henry Purcell, in score. Oblong quarto.

"Plung'd in the confines of despair." Hymn, 3 Voices.
"Lord, not to us." Hymn, 3 Voices.
"Hear me, O Lord, the great support." Hymn, 3 Voices.
"When on my sick bed I languish." Hymn, 3 Voices. (Not included in Novello's "Purcell's Sacred Music," and believed to be unpublished.)
"Since God so tender a regard." Hymn, 3 Voices.
"Ah! few and full of sorrows." Hymn, 4 Voices.
"Lord, I can suffer Thy rebuke." Hymn, 4 Voices.
"O Lord, our governor." Hymn, 4 Voices.
"Early, O Lord, my fainting soul." Hymn, 4 Voices.
"Hear me, O Lord, and that soon." Anthem, 4 Voices. (The first movement only.)
"O all ye people, clap your hands." Hymn, 4 Voices.
"Beati omnes qui timent Dominum." Latin Psalm, 4 Voices.
"Gloria Patri, et Filio." 4 Voices.
"Jehova, quam multi sunt hostes." Latin Psalm, 5 Voices.
"Turn Thee again, O Lord God of hosts." Anthem, 4 Voices.
"Hear my prayer, O God." Motett, 3 Voices. (This is by another Composer, whose name is not given.)
"Turn Thou us, O good Lord." Anthem, 4 Voices.

148. Two Volumes, the greater part in the handwriting of Dr. Philip Hayes, containing the following Compositions by Henry Purcell, in score, the majority of which are stated by Dr. Hayes to be transcripts of the Composer's original MSS. Those marked thus * are believed to be unpublished. Oblong folio.

VOLUME I.

"Since God so tender a regard." Hymn, 3 Voices.
"Early, O Lord, my fainting soul." Hymn, 4 Voices.
* "When on my sick bed I languish." Hymn, 3 Voices.
"O all ye people, clap your hands." Hymn, 4 Voices.
"Hear me, O Lord, the great support." Hymn, 3 Voices.
"Hear me, O Lord, and that soon." Anthem, 4 Voices. (The first movement only.)
"Full of wrath, his threat'ning breath." Air.
"Plung'd in the confines of despair." Hymn, 3 Voices.
"O Lord, our governor." Hymn, 4 voices.
"Oh, I'm sick of life!" Hymn, 3 Voices.
"Lord, I can suffer Thy rebuke." Hymn, 4 Voices.
"Ah, few and full of sorrows." Hymn, 4 Voices.

This Composition is incomplete, and was probably so left by the Composer. The copy printed by Mr. Novello and that in the last described MS. contain no other evidence of incompleteness than the termination being out of the key; but the present copy affords additional proof, the measure changing on the last bar, and some of the words of an intended following movement being written.

"O happy man!" Hymn, 4 Voices.
**"Crucifix in hac flamma." Hymn for 2 Voices.
***"Laudate Ceciliam." Ode, for 3 Voices with Instruments, for St. Cecilia's-day, 1683.
"Beati omnes qui timent Dominum." Psalm, 4 Voices.
"Gloria Patri, et Filio, &c." 4 Voices.
"Jehova, quam multi sunt hostes." Psalm, 5 Voices.
*A Fragment of a Composition consisting of a Symphony and part of a Chorus,
"We reap all the pleasures."
**"In a deep vision's intellectual scene." Cantata, 2 Voices and Chorus.
***"O that my grief were thoroughly weighed!" Anthem, 3 Voices.

VOLUME II.

Anthems.

I was glad.
O Lord, Thou art my God.
Lord, how long wilt Thou be angry?
O Lord, our governor.

Save me, O God.
The way of God is an undefiled way.
Who hath believed our report?
Praise the Lord, O my soul! O Lord my God.
